JFK Prods Settlement For Steel

Both Sides Hold To Tough Stand

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Chances for a fast steel settlement appeared dim today despite swift union and management agreement with President Kennedy's call for a resumption of bargaining by next Wednesday.

There were indications that steelworkers' President David J. McDonald and his aides would take a tough stand against paring down union demands any further at the reopening of talks.

Spokesmen for the nation's big steel producers said at the break-off of negotiations last Friday night that the union's package proposal was too big for the companies to accept and remain competitive.

Both sides, however, announced they were willing to resume discussions on a new contract within three hours following the President's appeal for a quick agreement.

No Deadline Pressure

One government official said, however, that since present pacts do not expire for nearly four months there is no deadline pressure on the parties.

The Kennedy administration's prestige is riding on the outcome of the bargaining since the President and Labor Secretary Arthur J. Goldberg have appealed for an early, non-inflationary settlement without a strike.

Kennedy told his news conference Wednesday the public interest was deeply involved since an agreement in advance of the June 30 contract expiration date would strengthen the economy.

Union Trimmed Demands

A settlement also would be "symbolic as a test of our ability to manage our economy in a competitive world," Kennedy said.

Under administration prodding, the talks began Feb. 14 in Pittsburgh, and continued for 16 days in the earliest bargaining in the history of the industry. But both sides said they were "far apart" at the break.

Union sources said the steelworkers had trimmed their demands about as low as they could and would take a firm line at any future sessions with company negotiators.

Tension Eases in Algerian Trouble

ALGIERS, Algeria (UPI)—Tension between Arabs and Europeans eased briefly today as Moslems celebrated the "day of forgiveness" religious holiday.

Right-wing terrorist activities were negligible compared to the bloodbaths set off in recent weeks by the approach of a ceasefire in the seven-year-old Algerian war.

European settlers and battle-ready troops watched passively as Moslems streamed into mosques to observe the last of the two-day Aid es Seghir—a festival which ends the month-long fast of Ramadan.

A slackening of tension was evident Wednesday with the opening of Aid es Seghir. Terrorism killed 14 persons and injured 20 others, the lowest casualty figures in weeks for a single day.

On the battlefield, informed sources reported Wednesday night that French and Algerian troops exchanged artillery fire Tuesday and Wednesday near the Tunisian border, in the Tebessa Mountains. Six soldiers were killed and 20 others were wounded in the first exchange, the sources said.

The reported conflict came at a time when French and Algerian negotiators in Evian, France, opened final peace talks on a ceasefire leading to Algerian independence.

Despite the relative calm Wednesday in Algerian cities, the right-wing Secret Army Organization (OAS), which opposes independence for Algeria, exploded plastic bombs in Algiers, Bone and Constantine.

The 1962 casualty toll from such extremist activity rose to 1,475 dead and 3,554 injured with Wednesday's victims.

Today and tomorrow will be bright and sunny, the weatherman insisted.

Thousands Flee Hurricane-Like Coastal Gales

By United Press International
Damage estimates mounted to well over $100 million today in the slowly subsiding storm tides which battered the Atlantic Seaboard and transformed scores of oceanfront communities — some of them plush resorts — into vast quagmires.

From sunny Florida to New York, thousands of persons were driven inland by the erupting sea which sent mountainous, gale-whipped waves pouring over beaches and into towns.

The erratic storm was expected to move harmlessly out to sea following its initial assault on Tuesday, but instead it swerved back for another lethal, day-long attack on coastal dwellers Wednesday. And in some areas more punishment was predicted for today.

The death toll from this and other storms raging across the nation since Tuesday has climbed to at least 40.

Damage in Millions
Authorities said they were unable to get a clear, overall picture of the damage until flood waters receded, but preliminary estimates indicated destruction figures would be well over $100 million.

H. Matt Adams, New Jersey commissioner of conservation and economic development, placed damage in his state at $30 million but added "I think we're low in that estimate."

Douglas Moore Jr., a Virginia civil defense official, estimated that Virginia Beach alone suffered a "conservative $15 million in damage." Damage to North Carolina's Outer Banks and the Maryland coast also was heavy.

Hiller Again First Out Of Gate

The barriers were lifted Wednesday to start the June 5 primary race and a Palm Springs man was the first one out of the gate.

As the time arrived for issuance of nomination papers for candidates seeking county, state and federal offices, 21 candidates were ready in all three fields.

Ray Hiller of Palm Springs was the first to be issued filing papers. He will seek the Democratic nomination for Congress against the incumbent, D. S. Saund.

There as Door Opens
Hiller, long-time local resident and former teacher made sure he'd be the first one. According to word from the county seat, he slept in his camper outside of the election office and was first in at 8 a.m.

Banning attorney, Jack Tenney also took out papers early. He will seek the Republican nomination for Congress.

Among others from this area to file was Jacqueline Cochran Odum, famed aviatrix, who seeks a place on the County Republican Central Committee.

For County and State
Incumbents seeking re-election who took out nomination papers included Assemblyman Gordon Colosie, District Attorney W. O. Mackey, Auditor W. L. Ladd, Treasurer E. O. Patterson, School Superintendent Leonard Grindstaff, Coroner James Bird, Superior Court Judge John G. Gabbert and Municipal Court Judge Wallace Rouse. G. W. Hooten, Indio, took out papers to contest Rouse's seat.

Howard Poe and Fred Duffey filed for the Municipal Court marshal's post. Deadline on filing is March 30.

Drought Over In California

SACRAMENTO (UPI) — More evidence of the end of the California drought has come from the state Department of Water Resources.

Director William Warne said Wednesday the water picture had improved so much since the beginning of February that "we are now in a position to report a better than normal year."

Preliminary reports indicate that the snowpack on March 1st was equal to or more than the average for April 1st, when the snowpack is usually at its peak. He said the Southern Sierra watersheds received as much or more snow from the February storms as did the Northern Sierra. This means spring runoff in the San Joaquin Valley will be normal and that carryover storage at the end of the summer should be the highest since 1958.

Warne said the southeast desert area was the only section in the state with below normal February rainfall.

Warne said this will be the first good water year California has had since 1958. He pointed out it was achieved without the serious flooding of that spring.

Child Needs Report Due For Board

A report on an 18-months study of the needs and feasibility for raising of severely mentally retarded children in the Palm Springs Unified School District will be presented to the district board today.

The report, prepared by a citizens committee headed by Orvil Zappe, Cathedral City, and Rabbi Joseph Hurwitz, Palm Springs, was asked by the board in the fall of 1960 to study the local problem, and operation of programs for retarded children in other school districts.

The board had been asked by the Palm Springs Foundation for Mentally Retarded Children to inaugurate the training within this district. Programs for retarded children are permissive in districts this size, and may receive more state aid per child than for regular programs.

A program for educatable retarded children is operating here. Such programs are mandatory under state law, while programs for severely retarded children are permissive under state law. There are no such programs within Riverside County now.

The board will consider a resolution for condemnation proceedings against Indian-allotted land in Section 12 sought as a school site, and will further consider a proposed district-city agreement for a joint use park adjacent to the Section 2 school site.

A contested road from East Palm Canyon Drive south on the extension of the former Cherokee Way route was approved. The road would divide Horizon and Safari Trailer parks, and be on the south of the new Brand Motors site.

Child Found Dead Here

A Palm Springs area mother, awakened by a telephone after 9 a.m. today after being up in the night with her sick child, found the little girl dead on the bedroom floor.

Dead is Sara Lou Ince, two and a half-year-old daughter of Mrs. Pamela Sue Ince, 67-209 Mission Drive. The little girl was discovered on the bedroom floor by her mother.

Mrs. Ince, nearly hysterical with grief, called Palm Springs police. Sgt. Nick Maff hurried to the scene to give any possible assistance, and the city fire department hurried a resuscitator to the home, while police headquarters notified the sheriff's office in Indio.

Mrs. Ince said the girl, who has had considerable illness, awakened her at about 1:45 a.m. fussing. Mrs. Ince stayed with the child, and eventually fell asleep at the foot of the youngster's bed. She was awakened this morning by the phone, to find the youngster dead, a sheriff's deputy reported.

An autopsy will be performed to determine the cause of death, the sheriff's department announced.

Public Hearing Slated On Off-Street Parking

A public hearing on a proposal to upgrade Palm Springs' off-street parking requirements in residential, multiple dwelling and some commercial areas will be held March 21, Planning Director Richard Coleman said today.

The hearing schedule was ordered Wednesday by the city planning commission.

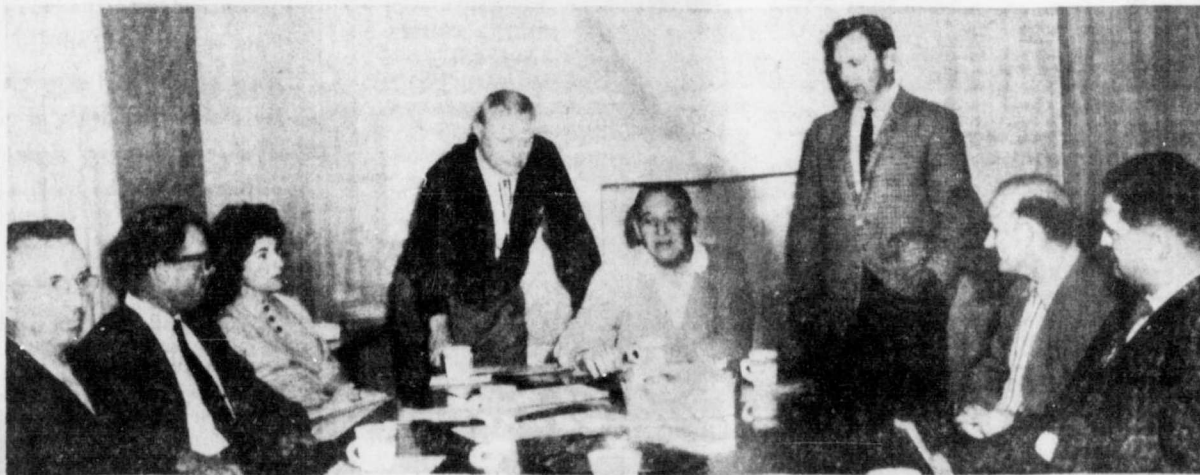

The commission adopted changes to the city's master plan for major streets, after a public hearing which brought comment from two persons and objections from Al Levitt.

The changes adopted included a realignment for Cherokee north from East Palm Canyon Drive along Indian allotment lines 660 feet west of the Section 30 line. The street would continue northward across the wash channel, and join the Section 19 line northward.

Other approved changes were provisions for service roads on the east side of Sunrise Way from Ramon Road to East Palm Canyon Drive, and on both the north and south sides of East Palm Canyon Drive from Araby bridge to Sunrise Way.

A contested road from East Palm Canyon Drive south on the extension of the former Cherokee Way route was approved. The road would divide Horizon and Safari Trailer parks, and be on the south of the new Brand Motors site.

Planners in No Action On Nursery

The Palm Springs planning commission yesterday referred back to Mrs. Frank Bennett, Mrs. Edith Ritter, director of Kiddie Kollege, who wrote the commission proposing her group handle day-care youngsters for a WAIF-sponsored day nursery headed by Mrs. Bennett.

John Miller, chairman of the planning commission, explained the commission's sole entry into the day nursery discussion was in answer to Mrs. Bennett's request for city land for the non-profit nursery.

"Mrs. Bennett called me yesterday to point out that the day nursery proposed by the non-profit group would only charge approximately 25 cents a day — not 25 cents an hour," Miller said.

The letter Mrs. Ritter wrote to the planning commission, and to other city officials as well as private citizens, cited a 25-cents per hour rate for the non-profit group, and a 33 and one-third cents per hour charge by her organization. Mrs. Ritter said she had written Mrs. Bennett, but did not elaborate on the correspondence.

Stolen Pickup Found by Police

A red pickup truck reported stolen from an automotive garage near Palm Springs last night was back where it belonged this morning, after a new police officer spotted it after a long night shift. William M. Perona, Kings View Trailer Park, reported at 9:20 p.m. Wednesday that a half-ton, four-speed pickup owned by the Arthur Maintenance Co. had been stolen from the Guarantee Garage, where it had been taken for repairs.

At 6:26 a.m. today, Robert Hartner, a new Palm Springs police officer, spotted the vehicle parked beside El Segundo Road north of Tahquitz-McCallum Drive. When the unauthorized driver failed to return for the truck, police picked up the pickup.

Palm Springs Lions in 25th Anniversary Fete

Presentation of a special citation honoring Raymond Cree as first president of the organization highlighted the 25th anniversary celebration of the Palm Springs Lions Club last night.

Cree received the framed and engraved parchment from Philip Boyd, a former Lion and former mayor of Palm Springs before a gathering of more than 150 club members and guests at a banquet program in the Riviera Hotel.

Honored along with Cree for extended periods of club activities that have reached into virtually all phases of civic life in the community were about 40 club members.

Sexton Speaks

Principal speaker was Jim Sexton of Phoenix, Ariz., an international director. Also speaking in the program conducted by Jack Riordan, president, was Wallace D. Dorman, district governor. Entertainment was by outstanding vocal groups from Palm Springs High School.

Cited for 30 years of service to Lionism was Francis F. Crocker, a record that exceeded the age of the club through transfer of membership. Awarded 25 year charter chevrons were James Cooper, Cree, Merrill Crockett, Ralph Nesmith, Alvin Weingarten and John W. Williams.

Honors

A. J. M. Gardiner and Kenneth Brott were hailed as charter members still active, who had moved away and returned. C. J. Burkett and Normann Merritt were cited as 25 year transfer members.

Honored for 20 years of service were Joseph Henderson, Culver Nichols, Dr. F. A. Purchell, C. S. Raymond, Herbert Samson, E. E. Theriault, Dr. B. B. Weatherall and Harold West.

Fifteen year honors went to Leo Baker, Clinton C. Bauer, Rev. James Blackstone, Arthur Burdick.

Servicemen Educational Plan Told

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The Defense Department told Congress today it is about to launch an unprecedented program designed to educate servicemen "in the area of democracy vs. communism."

Carlisle P. Runge, assistant secretary for manpower, outlined the program for the Senate armed services subcommittee studying alleged muzzling of military officers. He said the effort will launch a new long-range troop information program. It will start next month.

Runge testified after Chairman John C. Stennis opened the new phase of the subcommittee's study with a statement stressing that troop indoctrination should stress the advantages of a democratic way of life.

Stennis said he was convinced that "we must give our military people something to fight for and not merely something to fight against."

Runge said the history of communism will get major emphasis in the new program. He said a 50-minute film "The Road to the Wall" is being produced to highlight "the diabolical rise of Communist totalitarianism from Marx to the wall that encircles communism wherever it may exist."

Runge said the 205 radio stations and 34 television stations of the Armed Services Network will carry programs hitting the same theme. Troop newspapers will get a clippingsheet on the subject and commanders will be given material on it in a regular newsletter.

In addition, he said, the separate services will co-ordinate their efforts with the Defense Department drive.

Television Trade With Nikita Off

WASHINGTON (UPI) — President Kennedy and Soviet Premier Nikita S. Khrushchev have mutually agreed to postpone their planned exchange of television speeches because the "right atmosphere" does not exist at present.

The White House said it was hoped that the exchange could be carried out later this year.

Press Secretary Pierre Salinger, in a brief statement, announced the change of plans late Wednesday night. He would not discuss the origin of the mutual agreement to put off the exchange, which for the first time would have presented an American president to the Russian public. The plan also called for Khrushchev to appear on U.S. television screens.

Planned March Showing

Tentative arrangements for the exchange of filmed speeches — to be shown simultaneously — were made by Salinger and M. A. Kharlamov, chairman of the U.S.S.R. State Committee on Radio and Television.

The two men tentatively planned for both leaders to film their speeches in their respective countries about March 15 for showing in Moscow and over American television networks about March 25.

Negotiations between officials of both governments had proceeded so far that arrangements for the exchange were to have been announced here and in Moscow late last week. The White House had been discussing the situation with American television networks.

But cold war developments began to have an influence. Khrushchev and Kennedy exchanged dif-

"Double your pleasure, double your fun..." may bring to mind a nationally advertised product, but locally it can only bring to mind the double birthday party, hosted annually by Leo and Esther Maranz, in honor of the birthday shared by Leo and his daughter, Carol (Mrs. Bob) Marx.

As did many of the 160 guests, mother and daughter wore long gowns, when they greeted guests who arrived for cocktails and hors d'oeuvres in Tennis Club's Camellia Room.

The softly draped skirt of Carol's silk jersey gown, created by Galanos in an autumnal print, fell gracefully from a perfectly simple bodice with high neck and long sleeves.

Esther was a picture of Paris and loveliness in her Balmain gown, of embroidered net over peau de soie. Flowers in their natural colors were in abundance on the poof skirt and square-necked bodice.

Bernie Richards began playing his music-to-have-fun-by, while guests were accepting cocktails and making selections from the bountiful hors d'oeuvre table, centered with pink candles and multi-colored bouquets of tulips, daisies, chrysanthemums and carnations.

Fun, food and festivity continued in the Bougainvillea Room, where red wine was served with a prime rib dinner, and the band played on... and on.

Ken and Kathy Paige gave a dance exhibition which ended with tips on the Twist... a subject with which the happy (birthday) crowd was already well-acquainted. Ken chose Minette Haber as his Twistmate and seconds later the floor was filled with Twist enthusiasts. ("Twistoholics" Barbara Marx, Honey Epstein and Helene Alexander were undaunted even though they were "tight" in their full-length sheaths. Jean Gensburg came out victor in the battle of the bulge, when she managed to Twist the many, many petticoats under her regal white satin and sequined gown, designed by Simonetti.)

The men got into the act and came close to taking top billing. Noticeably adept at adapting to the new craze were Bob Marx, Bud Morris, Bob Blaschek and Dan Levin.

The dance marathon was interrupted by the arrival of a beautiful and appropriate two-tiered birthday cake. The top tier, devoted to Leo's hobby, was decorated with a framed painting and artist's brushes. Indicative of the celebrants' favorite sports, the bottom tier was iced with golf clubs and tennis rackets.

Guests mentally marked their calendars for years to come, when Leo cut the cake and said, "I hope you will all help us to celebrate for the next 20 years."

Janie Wade has received more attention than sympathy since she broke her left foot in a very undramatic UPIside.

The zipped stocking that Janie has created to disguise her toe-to-heel cast is brightly and sightly covered with flowers. (It's what you wear with one of Janie's Palm Springs hats when you're all broken up.)

Janie, who knows an idea when she gets one, says, "I think I'll plant myself in a ski resort and drum up business."

Dr. Charles Baldwin proved that even though he regularly assists the stork, he hasn't become blasé about babies... especially when his daughter has them.

Dr. and Mrs. Baldwin became first-time grandparents, when their daughter, Mrs. Richard Potter of

The painting shown in the center is Val Samuelson's "Philosophers". The exhibit will open in March and will continue through April, in the hotel's west lounge. The public is invited.

Work of Local Artists Is On Display at La Quinta

Twenty three paintings by members of the Palm Springs Civic Art Association are on display at La Quinta Hotel, through April, it was announced yesterday by La Quinta Hotel Manager Lee Schoenbrunn.

"We are delighted to present to our guests, to residents of adjoining La Quinta Country Club estates and to the public, this fine collection of paintings by desert artists," said Mr. Schoenbrunn. "Shows of this kind are a tradition, here at La Quinta. We also have as a permanent part of our authentic Spanish decor a number of excellent paintings and valuable art objects."

"We are pleased to contribute in this way to the awakening of the desert as a winter art center."

The exhibition includes: "Desert Panorama, a.m." by Helen Abernathy, "Chino Canyon" by Everett Ball, "Les Fleurs" by Joan Berling, "Citadel" by Earl Cordrey, "Alicia" by Rosalie Crocker.

Other paintings are: an untitled pair by Annette Freeman, a pair entitled "Beached" by G. Powell Harding, "The Great Ovation" by B. Horwick, and "Fiesta" by Ida Itkin.

Axel Linus will show "Wind-blown Trees" and "Snow on San Jacinto." Edna Malone, "A Park in Paris;" and Vicki Malouf, John Moyer and Miriam Moyer will each show untitled paintings.

Completing the exhibit will be "Power and Desert" by Chris Ranes; two paintings by Val Samuelson, "Fisherman's Wharf" and "Philosophers;" "Sails" by Ruth Schultz; "Barefoot Girl" by Millie Spiegelman; and "Under the Clock at the Biltmore" by Caroline Summers.

The paintings were juried by Earl Cordrey, Val Samuelson and Helen Abernathy and will be hung in the gallery under the supervision of Val Samuelson and John Moyer.

Cynthia Hall, L. T. Houston Will Wed Soon

Announcement of the engagement of their daughter Cynthia Gardiner Hall and Lawrence Thomas Houston has been made by Mrs. Eleanor Maynard Hall of Palm Springs and John Wright Hall of Santa Anna.

The bride-elect, graduate of Palm Springs High School, is a junior at Whittier College, where she is a member of the Athenians.

Her fiancé, son of the Lawrence Houstons of Balboa Island, is a senior at Whittier College and a member of the Orthogonians.

The engaged pair plan to wed on Mar. 31 at St. Paul's in The Desert in a 4 o'clock ceremony. Following the marriage they will resume their studies at Whittier College.

Many Cultures, Early America Represented at Antique Show

Reflecting our First Lady's taste in redecorating the White House will be more than half a million dollars worth of rare and unusual antiques which go on display today through Sunday at the Riverside Memorial Auditorium.

Just as Mrs. Kennedy has recreated the history of our country through careful selection of furnishings and accessories, 50 collectors from all parts of the country will help Southern Californians relive America's past through their displays of furniture and china, stamps, coins, candlesticks, pictures and prints, dolls, bells, music-boxes and accessories of all types.

The thousands of priceless antiques at the Riverside showing will also represent many lands and the newest decorating trend — that of the Victorian era — is also well represented with furniture, colored glass, hanging lamps, paintings and art objects, silver, jewelry, and other symbols of that period.

Hours for the Riverside Antiques Show at the Riverside Memorial Auditorium, 7th and Lemon Streets, are 1-10 p.m. daily Thursday, through Saturday, and 1-6 p.m. the final day, Sunday, Mar. 11.

Final plans for Saturday night's ball were discussed when Palm Springs Chapter of WAIF held its regular monthly meeting at the home of Mrs. Merwin Phillips, with Mrs. Glenn Austin presiding.

Two new members, Mrs. Roger Williams and Mrs. Mary W. Hurlburt, were welcomed during the social hour when tea was served, with Mrs. Ben Read and Mrs. Vernon Reinhardt pouring.

The next monthly meeting on April 2, will be held at the Thunderbird home of Mrs. Eric Stainton.

The Women's Association of the Community Church in Cathedral City will have a food sale Saturday, Mar. 10 at 10 a.m. It will be held at The Patio Outpost, 68-866 Broadway, in Cathedral City. Coffee and cake or pie will be served.

Insurance Women Install New Officers

Daffodils, Dutch iris and apple blossoms decorated the tables at Holiday Inn when the Insurance Women of Palm Springs and Coachella Valley held an installation dinner, with husbands and employers as guests.

Mary Jane Kenyon, retiring president, installed Regina Wasick as president and the following board members: June Lehman, vice president; June Travers, secretary; Ray McGee, recording secretary; Susie Pagan, treasurer.

Several new members, Karen Bendtsen, Doris Carlson, Grace McGee for founding this branch of the National Association of Insurance Women, were welcomed into the club.

After accepting the gavel of the presidency, Mrs. Wasick presented the retiring president with a gold and pearl pin, official emblem of the national organization. The pin was a gift of appreciation from the club for her work in guiding the new organization through its first year.

A Matter of Mind

By Dr. Arthur Janov

One of the most devastating and widespread problems in families today is alcoholism on the part of the parents. Nothing seems to degenerate the family structure faster nor leave a greater path of destruction in its wake than the chronically drunk parent. It is doubly insidious because it is so difficult to treat by the psychotherapist.

Alcohol can do in an instant what would take a therapist months to accomplish — it can relax him, make him feel warm, gay, confident and fearless. It gets him through social occasions that would otherwise be painful, anxiety-ridden experiences. It not only helps him to escape problems it helps him face them as well. Where is the therapist that can accomplish all that?

Not Whole Story
If that were the whole of the story we could make a good case for drinking but there's a bit more. The alcoholic is usually a continually tense and anxious person who finds it difficult to get down to the realities of life. He seems easily overwhelmed by even daily routine matters on the job and needs a few 'belts' to help him master enough of his tension so that he can function. He does not solve his drinking problem because he is unequipped to learn about what is causing all his tension. Drinking is simply the release of tension not the underlying cause of it. It compounds the problem, however, because in trying to relieve the anxiety by alcohol a host of new problems are created.

Hit By Guilt
If only the alcoholic could stop with just a very few drinks (enough to ease the tension) he would have the situation under fair control. But as everyone knows he cannot stop when he wants to — mostly because when he's under the influence his judgment is impaired and he doesn't want to stop when drinking.

The alcoholic is usually painfully inhibited with a terribly punishing conscience. He is guilty about almost everything and yet can't find a way out. He doesn't know why. All he knows is that drink makes him feel better — can that be so bad? If he could be a considerate mate and father, a responsible worker and a functioning human being it wouldn't be so bad; but responsibility and alcohol are antithetical terms.

The alcoholic is loathe to come to a psychotherapist because he is afraid that the only means he has of meeting this world will be taken away from him.

He is terrified of being left without some immediate means to ease his overbearing anxiety. His ego, usually smashed from years of drink, is too weak he feels to ever again get on top of the problem. His inattentiveness, which led him to seek instantaneous relief rather than work through problems, drives him away from what must be an extended psychotherapy where the goals are hazy.

At least now he knows what he's got. And, most of all, he's afraid of an admission of weakness, that he really is an alcoholic — someone who can't solve his own problems.

It's Treatable
The fact is that the tensions that cause alcoholism are known and can be dealt with. A competent psychotherapist does not leave his patient bereft at the start of therapy with nothing to hang onto. He does not take away without putting something in its place. He concentrates on slowly building a decayed ego so that the alcohol can be given up voluntarily, not taken away by force. Alcoholism is difficult to treat but it is treatable.

The following article will deal with some of the underlying causes of tension usually found in alcoholics.

JFK Had No Choice On Testing

By STEWART HENSLEY

WASHINGTON (UPI) — There was no other choice.

For four months President Kennedy had hoped against mounting odds to avoid another round of U.S. nuclear tests in the atmosphere without jeopardizing national security.

Just recently he came to the fateful decision that he had only one choice consistent with his oath to "defend the freedom of the American people" — to resume the tests in the air, which the United States suspended more than three years ago.

The final reports were in — from the Defense and State departments, from the Central Intelligence Agency, the Atomic Energy Commission and others. The evaluation had been completed.

To the President and his National Security Council the evidence had become conclusive!

Tip Military Balance
—Another series of Soviet tests, after the substantial progress in the massive Russian blasts last fall, might well lead to weapons breakthroughs that would tip the balance of world military power against the West and tempt the Kremlin to aggression.

—There was not the slightest evidence that Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev could be induced to reverse his field and sign a foolproof test ban treaty that would freeze the terrifying nuclear arms race.

When Kennedy announced last Nov. 2 that the massive Soviet test series had moved him to order "preparations" for possible new U.S. tests, some top advisers urged him to go ahead and declare flatly that atmospheric experiments would be resumed.

The President overruled them. He told them the four months necessary to prepare for new tests would give him time to decide for certain:

—Whether Russia, in its moratorium-shattering test series, had made substantial weaponry gains that threatened to sway the balance of power to the East.

Students and Teachers to Get Release

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The Defense Department announced that early releases will be granted an estimated 3,100 military reservists on active duty who wish to study or teach in schools and colleges.

The releases can be obtained up to 90 days before the end of the one-year term for which reservists were called up last October. Those planning to attend either summer sessions or the regular term next fall are eligible, a department spokesman said.

Most of those involved already were entitled to early releases for school purposes, but a Defense Department directive spelling it out extended the right to teachers in elementary and secondary schools.

A department spokesman estimated that between 600 and 700 teachers and 2,500 students would apply for the releases.

Cathedral City

Narrow Airline Escape

What Mrs. Quatino Biondi didn't know was the factor that kept her from taking the ill-fated American Airlines jet from Idlewild airport last week. Mrs. Biondi had flown to Newark to visit her mother, Mrs. Anna De Vito, who is ill with a heart condition and was scheduled to leave from New York when she learned a jet left from Newark the same morning.

Had Mrs. Biondi known the plane was to stop in Chicago she would have taken the one that crashed. Her husband didn't know until she called from Los Angeles that afternoon that she wasn't on the plane that went down.

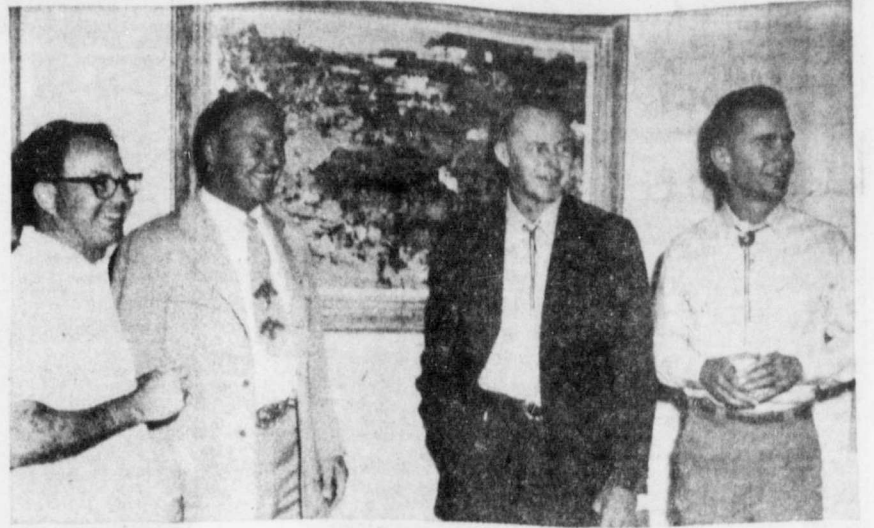

Veteran of two branches of the armed services, Captain Gabe W. Potter, just retired, is now making his home in Cathedral City. Potter's wife Faye and children Michael, James, Jacqueline and Lori are residing on Pomegranate Lane and he is now associated with his brother Ray Potter at the Cathedral Market.

A native of Oklahoma, Potter entered the Marine ranks in 1939 and served with the second Marine division during World War II in campaigns fought in the Pacific and Okinawa. Captain Potter was discharged from the Marines in 1947 and a year later entered the Army's enlisted ranks. In 1952 he was given a direct commission to the rank of second lieutenant.

Overseas service took him to the Far East and in 1957 he was appointed Headquarters Commander at the U.S. Army Quartermaster-Signal School in Lenggries, Germany. In 1960 Potter assumed duties as security and intelligence officer for the 4th artillery brigade, at Fort MacArthur, retiring last month after more than 20 years in the service of his country.

This week Mr. and Mrs. Robert Hollister and family have as their houseguests his brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Ken Hollister who flew in Sunday from Detroit. Visiting with the Hollisters over the weekend were Dr. and Mrs. John Hanek and daughters Meg and Janice from Meadville, Pa., who enjoyed swimming and relaxing poolside.

During their fourth visit this season as guests at the Sven-Ska Bungalows, members of Business and Professional Men's Art Institute of Los Angeles are here for a week painting the changing desert and mountains. In the group are their leader Sam Hyde Harris and Harry Budd of Corona Del Mar, Howard Lov of Los Angeles and Dr. Fred W. Burcky from Pasadena. Also here this week to paint the desert are Mrs. Mary Pitcher of Redondo Beach and Mrs. Carolyn Ditton of Glendale. Mrs. S. P. Riordan of Riverside is spending a month or more at Sven-Ska and Mr. and Mrs. Robert Baumgartner of Seward, Alaska are here for several weeks.

The next regular meeting of the Palm Springs Camera Club will be held Friday, Mar. 16 at 8:00

Mr. and Mrs. James Taber and children David and Kathy were here from their home in Van Nuys as houseguests of her parents Mr. and Mrs. Ted Watkins for the weekend.

The birthday of Mrs. Otto (Lucille) Paulson was celebrated with a family dinner at their home on Bahada Road and attended by their daughter and two sons and families from Covina and Alhambra.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Sullivan of Seattle, are spending three weeks at Sunhaven Court and Mr. and Mrs. Jack Delaney are here from their home in Menlo Park. Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Metz returned to their home in Palo Alto after a week at the Sunhaven.

Weekend houseguests of Mr. and Mrs. Leo Shurley and daughter, Carol, were his mother Mrs. Marguerite Hartman, his grandmother Mrs. Etta Beckman and Hayden Rhudy from Long Beach.

Sale Set On Desert Land Areas

RIVERSIDE (UPI)—The Federal Land Office has announced that more than 300 small tracts of desert land will be offered for sale at continuing auction starting March 14.

This brings the total number of tracts available to over 3,900 parcels.

Minimum prices range from $400 to $1,800 for 2½ to 5-acre tracts in the Lost Horse Mountain and Idyllwild areas of Riverside County; the Valley Mountain-Dale Lake, Morongo Valley, Emerson Lake, Lake Arrowhead, Apple Valley, Ord Mountains, Hawes and Shadow Mountains areas of San Bernardino County; and the Ridgecrest, Rosamond and Mojave areas of Kern County.

Dr. Benson Speaks in Palm Springs

Dr. Lyman Benson, Professor of Botany at Pomona College, will speak on "The Great Stone Wall of the Pacific Coast" Saturday at 8 p.m. at the Palm Springs Desert Museum.

His subject refers to the Cascade—Sierra Nevada Mountain Axis, and is concerned mainly with the contrasts in plant life on the two sides of the Axis—forests and woodlands on the one side and deserts on the other.

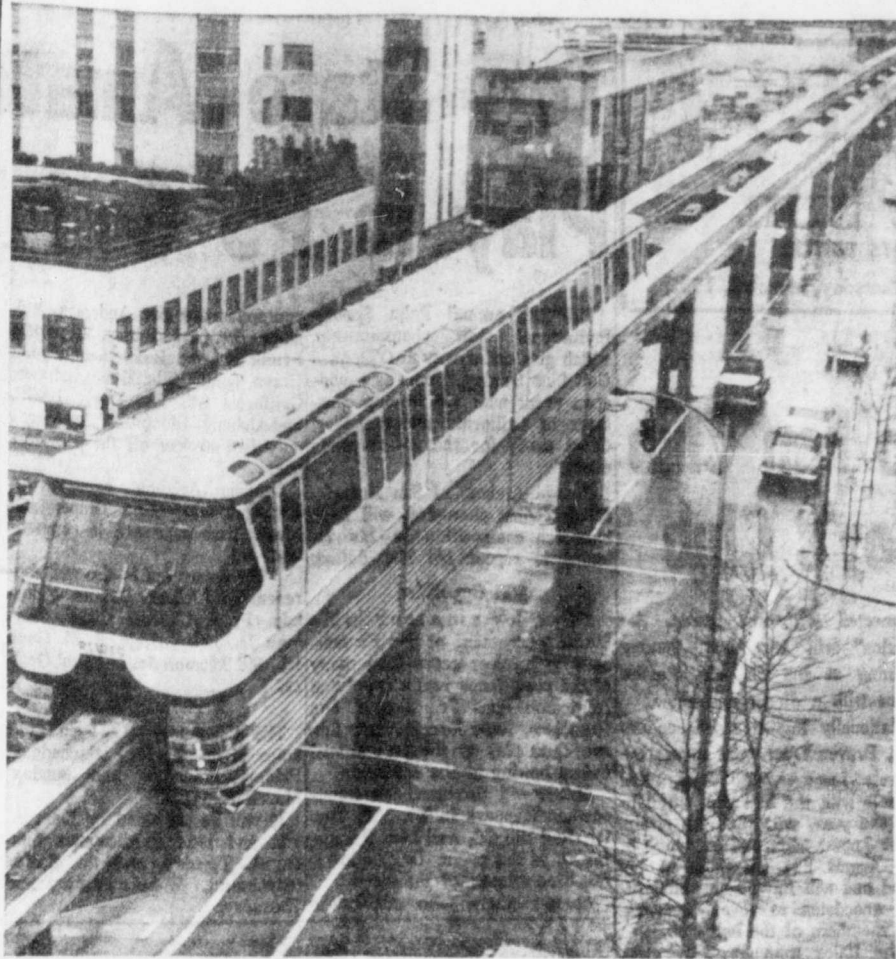

Dr. Benson's program will be illustrated with Kodachrome slides. Members are admitted free of charge. Guests and visitors pay a small admission.

Appeal Set at Hot Springs

DESERT HOT SPRINGS — The fund raising drive for the United Jewish Appeal will open here Sunday at 8 p.m. at the Jewish Community Center.

Guest speaker will be Shaia Silberman an employee of the Israeli government who will speak on problems confronting Israel in its attempt to absorb the Jewish refugees fleeing from North Africa.

Local chairman Sol Winter will be assisted by co-chairmen, Sam Goldman, Ernie Hirschbein, Ben Katz and William Pike.

TRIAL RUN is made with the Alweg Monorail train at Seattle. Here the train is three fourths of its way toward downtown Seattle on Fifth Ave. The monorail will carry visitors to the Seattle World's Fair which opens April 21. (United Press Telephoto)

Jobs in February Shows Gain

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The nation's unemployment rate fell to 5.6 per cent of the labor force in February, the lowest level in 19 months, the government announced today.

Unemployment, declining more than usual, dropped by 120,000 last month to 4,543,000. As for total employment, there was a better than expected gain of 731,000 jobs to a level of 65,789,000.

The improvement in the job picture pushed the seasonally adjusted rate of unemployment down from 5.8 to 5.6 per cent of the labor force.

This key figure was at its lowest for any month since July, 1960. It had climbed to 6.9 per cent a year ago at the depth of the recession.

The Labor Department also reported an increase of 570,000 in nonfarm jobs to a record high of 61,211,000 last month.

Seymour E. Wolfbein, department manpower expert, said the changes were caused by improved economic conditions and better weather during the February survey week when samplings were taken.

Victim's Body Shipped East

The body of Mrs. Kathleen Mary Mullady who was found dead in her winter home at 1680 Mesquite Ave. Sunday as result of severe burns suffered when flames damaged the house, was shipped to Chicago Tuesday for burial services.

Mrs. Mullady and her daughter, Molly, arrived here seven weeks ago to spend the winter.

She is survived by her husband, Walter F. Mullady, two sons, Walter Jr., and Patrick and her daughter, Patricia.

Wiefels and Son Mortuary was in charge of local arrangements.

WIFE OF PRIEST:

Says Church Stole Husband

MINEOLA, N.Y. (UPI) — A mother, who identified herself as the wife of a Roman Catholic priest, has filed a $2,375,000 suit against the church, Francis Cardinal Spellman and other individuals, charging they kidnaped her husband.

Mrs. Alice Belskis Ryan, 41, mother of four daughters aged 10 to 5 years, said in the Supreme Court suit the defendants used "force...and intoxicating beverages" to kidnap her husband from his Long Island home.

The suit, filed Tuesday, claimed she and her husband, Walter A. Ryan, 57, were secretly married in 1950 while he was assistant pastor of St. Patrick's Church in Glen Cove, N.Y.

The suit charged that Ryan was abducted and "forcibly detained at the home of Kiernan Fitzpatrick...then removed to monasteries." It said the church and its officials had full knowledge of the marriage and children. Mrs. Ryan's attorney, Philip Fiering, said he had been negotiating with the defendants for two years but that the talks proved unsatisfactory. Fiering said Ryan now is believed to be in San Francisco. Mrs. Ryan is seeking $375,000 "exemplary and punitive damages" for herself and $500,000 for each of the children.

Also named as defendants were the Archdiocese of New York, the dioceses of Rockville Center, N.Y., Springfield and Worcester, Mass., Brooklyn, San Francisco and Los Angeles.

Funeral services for Louis Thomas, 70, of 1444 Calle Rolph, were held Tuesday in Akron, Ohio.

Mr. Thomas died Sunday after an illness of several months duration. A native of Macedonia, Greece, he had been a resident of Palm Springs for nine years.

He is survived by his wife, Stella Thomas of Palm Springs and a nephew, Jimmy Steffoff of Tustin. Wiefels and Son mortuary was in charge of local arrangements.

Louis Thomas' Rites Conducted

Funeral services for Louis Thomas, 70, of 1444 Calle Rolph, were held Tuesday in Akron, Ohio. Mr. Thomas died Sunday after an illness of several months duration. A native of Macedonia, Greece, he had been a resident of Palm Springs for nine years.

2 Angel Hurlers Make Rig Smile

Today at the Polo Grounds the Del Rice team and Rocky Bridges' squad clashed for the last time in an intra-squad game before the LA Angels open their spring exhibition schedule against the Houston Colt 45s Saturday at 1:30 p.m.

In Wednesday's game, the Rice team shutout the Bridges' nine, 5-0, as two Angel hurlers turned in outstanding mound performances to turn the corners of skipper Bill Rigney's mouth up to display smiles of satisfaction.

PIERCE SIZZLES

Good News in S.F. Giants Camp

PHOENIX, Ariz. (UPI)—There was good news today in the camp of the San Francisco Giants.

Veteran Billy Pierce, the stylish lefty obtained in trade from the Chicago White Sox this winter, turned in a dazzling drill Wednesday.

Pierce's 189 major league wins testify that he has the goods when he is right. The Giants obtained him on the gamble that he had another year or two of good pitching left. Pierce was 10-9 last season.

Wednesday he faced the likes of Willie Mays, Willy Mc Covey, Felipe Alou, Jimmy Davenport and Harvey Kuenn and looked like money in the bank.

Kuenn said Pierce appeared faster than when he used to face him in the American League. San Francisco scout Dutch Reuther added that Pierce appeared to be quicker than when he saw him in Buffalo in 1946.

Manager Alvin Dark said Pierce and Billy O'Dell would be the first two starting pitchers when the 28-game exhibition cactus league season swings into action this weekend.

Odell will be followed Saturday by rookie Gaylord Perry and reliever Stu Miller in the game against Cleveland at Tucson.

Pierce will be backed up by rookie Ron Herbel and Juan Mari-chal in the Sunday encore here.

An intersquad game was scheduled today.

Big Don Larsen, who came over from the junior loop with Pierce, worked out again Wednesday. He was loose and fast and showed no effects of the arm and shoulder bruises received when he was struck by McCovey's liner Thursday.

Angels Halo Fan Club Meets at Boy's Club

Members of the Palm Springs "Halos", a newly organized club, will meet tonight at the Boy's Club at 8 o'clock to discuss last minute details regarding the "Home Plate" dinner with the Los Angeles Angels Sunday evening at the Chi Chi.

A new "twist" has been inaugurated by the Angels "Halo" Fan Club in the naming of the club's officers. Each of the organization's office holders carry the title which directly ties in with the Angels ball club.

Heading the list is not the president, but Hy Finerman who is known as the manager. Second in line is Tony Cosantino, called home plate. Then comes Ray Lockwood, second base, Jimmy Cooper, first base, Roy Grow, shortstop, Bob McWirtter, leftfield, Joe Henderson center field, Bruno DiGrandi, right field, Gus Kettman, catcher and Phil Siegel, pitcher.

Next comes the two coaches, Jack Baron and Fritz Blotter backed up by Sam Siegel, the bat-boy. Umpires of the new PS Angels Halo Club are Rev. Fred Barnhill and Rabbi Joe Hurwitz.

This infant organization is made up of men proud of Palm Springs and are just as proud and thrilled that the Los Angeles Angels come here in the spring to train at the Polo Grounds.

These men are baseball fans and "love" their Angels. They show their appreciation to the entire LA Angel organization from the owners on down the line to the ball players, their wives and everyone

Smith Elected Prexy of Shadow Mtn.

At the first meeting of the newly elected directors of the Shadow Mountain Golf Club held in Palm Desert, Harold Smith was elected president for the coming year.

Members of the board are: Dr. George Munns, vice president; Gordon Cox, secretary and W. D. Smith, treasurer.

President Harold Smith announced that the present committees will carry on until a later meeting of the board can be held. At that time a new chairman and their assistants will be announced.

The new president disclosed that great plans are in store for the golfing group and the other activities of the club.

Top State Amateurs to Play in PS Golf Tourney

The 27th annual Palm Springs Invitational Golf championship, which gets under way at O'Donnell Golf Club Sunday, looms as a wide open event with the leading amateurs of California and the West Coast ready for the 54-hole main event.

George Archer, of San Francisco, defending champion, will have top-notch competition in his attempt to repeat his 1961 defeat.

Stiff Opposition
Archer, low amateur in the Lucky tournament at San Francisco with a lower score than many of the pros, faces real competition from Bob Roos Jr., also of San Francisco. Roos forced Archer into over-time play in the 26th annual before bowing to the champion.

Archer will also meet two minus-one-handicappers in Dr. Bud Taylor, Red Hill CC, and Dick Runkle, LACC, in the event. Dr. Taylor is five-time winner of the event.

Among others who will be in contention are Art Anderson, Wilshire, Dr. Art Butler, Glendora, Frank Hoover, Bakersfield, Frank Hixon, South Hills, Gene Andrews, California CC, Lee Davis, LACC, and Johnny Jacobs, 17, who was only five strokes off the pace last year.

Leading Arizona amateurs a Michigan star, Tom Draper and others from afar are in competition.

The desert rea is also well represented by Johnny Dawson, Eldorado, Frank Chilson, Claude Harmon Jr., Lew Bridge, R. M. Guelich, Sid Solomon Jr. and Saul Gealich.

Week-Long Event
The Championship event, 54 holes of medal play, is scheduled Friday, Saturday and Sunday, March 16, 17, 18.

It will be preceded by Class A, 6-14 and 15-24 handicappers Sunday to Tuesday and the Senior tournament, Wednesday and Thursday.

Big Opening Weekend To See First Game, Home Plate Dinner

Saturday will be "Los Angeles will be played against the Houston Baseball Club Day" following the signing Wednesday of a proclamation to that effect by Palm Springs Mayor Frank Bogert.

Presentation of the proclamation will be made just before the opening spring training game of the club on Saturday afternoon at the Polo Grounds. Included in the ceremonies besides Mayor Bogert and a representative of the Angels will be Chamber Manager Jimmy Cooper and head of the Los Angeles Angels Halo Club of Palm Springs, Hy Finerman.

Another event scheduled for the big opening weekend series, which will be played against the Houston Colt 45s, a new National League team, is a Home Plate Dinner scheduled Sunday night at the Chi Chi.

John Kennedy Heads List of 'Best Dressed'

NEW YORK (UPI) — President Kennedy today headed the annual list of the "ten best-dressed men in the nation," as selected by the Custom Tailors' Guild of America.

The Chief Executive "has re-popularized the two-button single breasted suit," the organization noted, "and has caused clothes conscious men throughout the world to re-design their wardrobes."

Rotary Sees Documentary Sound Film

"New Highlights of 1961," a documentary sound film of the top news events of the world last year, was shown to the Palm Springs Rotary club Wednesday.

The Fox Movietone-United Press International production was arranged for and introduced by Carl W. Schooss, Desert Sun Publisher as the program of the regular Wednesday noon luncheon.

Most frequent comment during the showing was, "My goodness, I'd forgotten that already," referring to some dramatic scene. The film portrayed such events as the Russian orbital and U.S. sub-orbital flights, the Eichmann trial, Algerian riots, Lumumba murder and Congo fighting, Kennedy-Khrushchev meetings and the Trujillo overthrow in Guatemala.

Schooss announced that the film had been purchased by The Desert Sun as a public service and was available for showing free before service groups and other organizations.

Among the distinguished guests from all over Canada and the U.S. was J. C. Penney, famed department store chain owner.

LIFT CURFEW

JERUSALEM, Israel (UPI) — The Defense Ministry has lifted the curfew in the triangle region of central Israel inhabited mainly by Arabs in a move to relax military rule in certain border areas.

The curfew from midnight to 4 a.m. has been in force since the armistice was signed with Jordan in 1949.

American Consumer to Get Savings from Cut

WASHINGTON (UPI) — What can the American consumer expect to save on the price of imported goods as a result of the new U.S. tariff-cutting agreements with 31 non-Communist nations?

Here are some of the answers: A nickel on a fifth bottle of Scotch or Irish whisky or gin. About $21.50 on the average foreign-made car.

Seven cents on every dollar's worth of nuts. One dollar and a half on a $30 wooden baby carriage.

Twenty cents on every $10 of field-hockey sticks, table-tennis rackets, croquet mallets and tennis nets.

Twenty dollars on a $1,000 fur coat of Persian lamb, mink, beaver, chinchilla, sable and some other pelts.

These are typical of hundreds of tariff reductions this country agreed to make in exchange for similar cuts by the six-nation European Economic Community (EEC), the United Kingdom and 24 other nations. The agreements were made public Wednesday.

On industrial items the cuts are 20 per cent. U.S. officials said they would be put into effect in two stages.

Consumers in this country and abroad also will benefit, if indirectly, from tariff reductions on many industrial items. Benefits to consumers will in some instances mean hardship to workers in firms hurt by foreign competition.

Firemen Model For Councilmen

The Palm Springs Firemen's Association will model two uniforms for the city council at 7:30 p.m. Monday — and add an offer to buy new dress uniforms, F. A. Stevenson, president, announced.

On display for the councilmanic fashion eye will be a proposed new black dress uniform, and the grey which is the current summer uniform, Stevenson said. Engineer Don G. Brower will wear the grey, and Stevenson will wear the dress black.

"We think the black is better looking and more practical than our current dress blues — and they're less expensive, too," Stevenson said.

The firemen have offered to purchase the dress uniforms to replace those now worn. Approximately 20 uniforms would be purchased for $1,000, Stevenson said.

Uniform for station work and in the field will remain dungarees, if the firemen's proposed gift is okayed by the council.

Demo Tiff Looms in Bay State

By LYLE C. WILSON
WASHINGTON (UPI) — When President Kennedy was setting up the 1962 Massachusetts Senate vacancy that has just come about, it was assumed that he was creating an escape hatch for brother Bobby.

The 1962 Senate vacancy was arranged in December, 1960, in conference between the President and Massachusetts Gov. Foster Furcolo. John F. Kennedy was not yet President of the United States but had been elected to that office and he was boss of the Democratic Party in Massachusetts. So, when Furcolo visited the President-elect here in Washington, the governor was instructed to name an old Kennedy friend to Kennedy's just-vacated Senate seat. This was Benjamin A. Smith II, of Gloucester, Mass.

Kennedy bluntly told Furcolo that he did not want named to the Senate a person who would want re-election when the appointive term ended in 1962. Furcolo named Smith, and Smith made good on his bargain a few days ago by announcing that he would not seek re-election. So the Massachusetts Senate seat is open.

It is no escape hatch, however, for brother Bobby. Edward Kennedy, 36, seems to be quite happy where he is, and small wonder. This Kennedy brother is being built up toward some big spot in American politics, not merely for a seat in the U. S. Senate.

Youngest brother Edward (Ted) is the Kennedy who is expected now to run for the Senate this year in Massachusetts. The Politically ambitious nephew of Speaker John W. McCormack also is sidling toward the Democratic Primary for the Massachusetts senatorial nomination.

If it turns up that blood kin of the President and the Speaker do battle in that primary election, the contest should be spectacular and, perhaps, of real importance beyond Massachusetts. If the Speaker is as ambitious for his nephew as an uncle might be expected to be, that primary could create some tension between the White House and the Democratic leadership of the House of Representatives. The administration's congressional problems already are centered in the House. The problems are too tough without further complication.

The primary will come and go this year, however, whereas the political future of Kennedy brother Bobby will remain a bit of mystery for years to come. Already he is one of the best known and most controversial figures in the United States, old or young. Just home from a world tour, Bobby has established for himself an image.

The image is of an aggressive, intelligent young man who can meet the world's great men and discuss the world's big problems with an astonishing combination of success and confidence. Bobby is established at home as a maker of basic policy, as witness the administration approach to the issue of civil rights. Bobby is the big man in this administration, second only to his brother.

The President is the powerhouse behind the build-up of his younger brother. So, the question arises. Build-up for what? From the Cabinet, where do you go?

New Drug is Introduced

CHICAGO (UPI)—The American Medical Association has reported on a new drug which effectively reduced high blood pressure in 31 of 33 severe cases.

The drug, alpha-methyl DOPA was described by Drs. Paul J. Cannon, Robert T. Whitlock, Marielena Angers and John H. Laragh, all of New York City, and R. Curtis, San Francisco, Calif.

They reported the mode of action of the drug has not been fully defined, but it is believed to affect one of the hormones secreted by the adrenal glands, which has been linked to the development of high blood pressure.

The doctors, writing in the Journal of the American Medical Association, said the new drug, unlike other drugs used to lower blood pressure, produced few side effects. They said the drug also lowered blood pressure in patients with kidney damage without apparently producing further kidney deterioration.

The drug was useful in emergency treatment of sudden, acute episodes of high blood pressure involving the brain, because of its potency and rapid action, the doctors said.

Crime Rate is Constant in State's Cities

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Major crime totals in California's 14 largest cities remained generally even in 1961 as compared to 1960 despite the continuing population increase, according to the FBI.

Four cities—San Francisco, Oakland, Santa Ana and Anaheim—showed increases in the incidence of major crimes.

Los Angeles figures dropped in all classifications except murder, rape and assault. Long Beach had decreases in every category save murder and auto theft.

There was more of every type of major crime except robbery in Oakland, and of all but murder and rape in Anaheim. Santa Ana reported increases in every category except murder.

The figures remained about the same for the two years in Berkeley, Fresno, Glendale, Pasadena, Sacramento, San Diego, San Jose and Torrance.

Dr. Spears in Foundation Talk

CATHEDRAL CITY — Dr. John De Aragon, former clinician of Spears Hospital, Denver, presented an address at the Ashrama Swaraj Foundation here on the topic "Comprehensive Therapy for the Handicapped Child".

He discussed the various modes of therapy employed at the Denver institution and their clinical evaluation. He also pointed out the importance of adequate nutritional guidance and greater parental orientation of the child's infirmities through a planned home care program.

The Foundation is inaugurating a treatment center for cerebral palsy and related disorders, it was announced.

THOUSAND PALMS

Ladies Sewing for Charity

THOUSAND PALMS — Ten ladies of Friendship Circle of the Thousand Palms Community Church met at the church Tuesday morning to work. They brought their own sandwich for the coffee break, along with the tools of their trade. They set up a veritable production line, some working on crib quilts, some cutting patterns, some basting, some stitching by machines and others putting on the finishing touches.

In all, the ladies turned out 18 completed pieces of baby apparel. They will be divided between the baby clinic at Indio where the migrant baby needs are handled and Mrs. Harry Sameson, who helps meet the needs of the Navajo Indian on the Arizona reservations.

The ladies have decided to have a work day a month when they can do whatever is necessary to help the needy around us. With a little practice they will be able to get a spot on any production line in the country. It's too bad we can't get a Ford plant out here in the desert. There's a lot of talent going to waste.

pleasantly surprised Wednesday when Mr. and Mrs. Shannon Morrison of Elsinore stopped briefly to visit their old friends and neighbors. Until very recently, they lived on Los Flores Way in our community.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Sameson enjoyed a visit from a grand daughter, Miss Jimmie Mae Hagadorn and her fiancé Mr. Frank Naumann, both of Norwalk, California.

Friends of Mrs. Cloe Vogus of Calle Jessica paid her a surprise visit last week-end. They were Mr. and Mrs. Ben Dickson of Los Angeles.

Mr. and Mrs. Ben Wheeler (Paulene) and daughters Paula and Dana, visited Mrs. Wheeler's mother, Mrs. Mona Cunningham on Calle Jessica over the weekend.

Mrs. Hazel Pries on Arbol Real had guests last week from San Gabriel, Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Long with their two grand daughters.

A Little College Points the Way

In these days of federal hand-outs at seemingly the slightest pretext to communities, colleges and other groups too many of which gladly accept the dole even at the expense of their independence, the word this week from Rockford, Ill., is refreshing.

Last June that Midwestern community gained nation-wide recognition from editorial writers for the courageous stand taken by Rockford College, a small liberal arts educational institution with 500 students. Trustees of Rockford College voted not to seek federal funds of any sort in the $15 million new campus development program planned.

This week, much less than a year later, the word came that the faith and belief of the college trustees was justified.

Private enterprise and independent higher education must stand together they said then. Rockford and its supporters across the nation have demonstrated that it can be done, they say today.

The first phase of their fund program, a goal of $2.1 million was oversubscribed and rapid progress is being made toward the second goal.

The project, it now seems certain, will be completed ahead of schedule and this without the slightest help from a federal dole which was available.

Last June, when a hand-out from Washington, D.C., was politely refused, President John A. Howard, Rockford College president, said:

"I feel that a dependence on national government to solve all problems weakens the moral fiber of the citizens. As taxes rise higher, more people are tempted to suppress their scruples and adjust their tax returns as governmental programs of grants and subsidies multiply, citizens (and boards of trustees), once proud of their self-sufficiency, overcome their repugnance to a dole and reach for the proffered benefits."

President Howard summed up the stand of the Rockford College board's faith in self-reliance and independence in the words:

"Man's human stature rises as he is self-sufficient and declines as he is dependent."

Another member of the college board last June, when editorial writers across the nation paid tribute to the school for its stand, said:

"We must stand on the basis of our convictions and principles. If we ask the government to quit spending money at such a high rate, we can't ask for a hand-out in the next breath."

Rockford College has another distinction. It was chartered in 1847 and this week is celebrating its 115th anniversary. Jane Addams, founder of Chicago's Hull House, and one of the few women ever to be awarded the Nobel Peace Prize, was in its first graduating class.

Its proof this week that free enterprise and self-determination still prevail in the best traditions of these United States is another great distinction.

THIS SIDE Of The Sun

R. F. "Phat" GRAETTINGER

Across the skies
The fast jets zoom,
While here below
We all go boom.

We were lucky in Palm Springs Monday. The B-58 bomber which flashed across the nation and back, smashing records, windows and scaring the day lights out of people, was too far up to jolt the Desert Empire.

BUT I WASN'T in Palm Springs at the time. I was in Riverside, a cup of coffee held daintily in one hand as I sought to keep from steaming up my glasses while reading the sports pages.

By one of those coincidences that happen all of the time, on the very day that the B-58 left a trail of shattered glass from Long Beach to New York and back, the Supreme Court ruled that airports are responsible for damages suffered by earth bound people due to airplanes.

THAT MEANS that the government, in this case March Air Force Base at Riverside, is going to be stuck for broken windows, falling plaster, broken dishes from the Pacific to the Atlantic and vice versa.

And at least one cleaning bill for damage sustained by one pair of slacks, just back from the cleaners.

Coupled, perhaps, with monetary balm for two scorched nether limbs encased in said slacks.

THE NETHER LIMBS are the personal property of one rather well-worn newsman. The slacks which are new and therefore not well-worn, are held in fee simple by the same.

As recorded in Paragraph 2, Line 4, above, this cup of coffee was being held daintily by the newsman, me.

Just then the first sonic boom slammed into the wall and sashayed across the room.

IN ITS COURSE it clobbered the newsman, me, and the startled wight momentarily relaxed his grip on the cup. Gravity took over.

There were a few seconds of purplish pronouncements then I got up and changed my pants. Somehow, there seemed to be more concern from the other side of the table about the shattered cup, the spot on the carpet and the ruin of the pants than for the singed limbs. March Field may get a statement soon.

BUT THAT WAS some deal, however. Capt. Robert Sowers, who would have left a cannon ball at the post, as we say at Santa Anita, also outdistanced Father Time heading back.

He got to the finish line at Ontario airport 45 minutes before he left New York. By the clock, that is.

He made it in 2 hours, 15 minutes.

YOU CAN HARDLY make it in that from Windy Point to La Quinta these days.

Compared to this achievement, what's a pair of coffee-colored pants?

But, please, don't anybody get cuddly and try to sit on my lap. It hurts.

Sincerely yours,
Philm Siegel

ARIES (Birthdays from Mar. 21 to Apr. 19) — It is important that you impress higher-ups with your ability to handle your practical affairs wisely, especially where credit is concerned and government obligations. You can advance now by proving that you are a good, upstanding citizen.

TAURUS (Birthdays from Apr. 20 to May 20) — Although you feel that others are being too forceful with you, it is best to await a better day to make those changes diplomatically that will ameliorate your position. Continue to perform your duties in a highly efficient manner.

GEMINI (Birthdays from May 21 to June 21) — While private worries have you quite disturbed, it would be very unwise to pick arguments at this time with individuals concerned, since it would not make a good impression on those who want to help you. Assist the needy instead.

MOON CHILDREN (Birthdays from June 22 to July 21) — New friends may be quickly attractive to you, but take care not to make radical changes at their insistence or you will certainly regret it later. Be kind and friendly with everyone, but retain own counsel. Be adroit, firm.

LEO (Birthdays from July 22 to August 21) — Many excellent opportunities are yours now for bettering yourself in your career or social life, however, do not rush headlong into activities without first taking time to study and consider them well. Await a better time and day.

VIRGO (Birthdays from Aug. 22 to Sept. 22) — Make it a point to study new outlets or interests for the future, but do not as yet take the initial steps to enter into them. Get data organized properly. Read your paper and other periodicals for latest trends, ideas.

LIBRA (Birthdays from Sept. 23 to Oct. 22) — Infinite care must be taken in whatever tasks you perform today or there is danger of accident or damage, losses. Also, be very tactful with fellow workers. Get their full cooperation.

SCORPIO (Birthdays from Oct. 23 to Nov. 21) — It is important you enjoy only inexpensive pleasures today, since it is important also that bills get paid. If you are kind and affectionate with others, you find you will get invitations and life will be more pleasant.

SAGITTARIUS (Birthdays from Nov. 22 to Dec. 21) — Think in terms of getting home and family affairs improved, even if it means some personal sacrifice. Put aside personal pleasures so that you can please those you love. Strive for greater security and harmony in the future.

CAPRICORN (Birthdays from Dec. 22 to Jan. 20) — If you consider the views and right of others now, you find that you can establish far better relations with them and this will lead to greater success in the future. Also, you will attract those with whom you want to be associated.

AQUARIUS (Birthdays from Jan. 21 to Feb. 19) — Basic affairs require particular care and full attention, or you could make a mistake where it is most important. Make plans far into the future and be patient, remembering the motto that "Rome wasn't built in a day." Be practical.

PISCES (Birthdays from Feb. 20 to Mar. 20) — Particular care must be taken while out driving or you may get involved in an accident and then also lose out on some important business. Shopping is fine, but be sure you spend well within your means. Forget unnecessary baubles, too.

If Your Child Is Born Today. He, or she, will be one of those wonderfully magnetic individuals who wants to procrastinate about everything, which can be pretty trying, if you don't teach early that only by making quick decisions can anything be accomplished in this life. Otherwise there can be failure here where there could be very great success, especially in big business, real estate, mines, etc.

Civilian May Get Chance At Space Hop

By JOSEPH L. MYLER

WASHINGTON (UPI)—The next crop of U.S. astronauts probably will resemble the current seven pretty closely, except that they may include civilian as well as military test pilots.

The new group may even include a middle-aged scientist or two, a spokesman for the National Aeronautics and Space Administration (NASA) said today.

Specifications for the oncoming group of space trainees have not been definitely settled. But, an official said today, there is no indication that the U.S. manned space flight program is about to become coeducational.

This is not because NASA dislikes or doubts the ability of women. But the tentative specifications for lunar astronauts are such that, at this juncture in the evolution of civilization, only males happen to be qualified.

The original seven Mercury astronauts are expected to carry the space program through the next several orbital flights and into the Gemini Project calling for the launching of two-man spacecraft in 1963-64.

After Gemini will come the program for launching three-man Apollo spacecraft into ever longer flights culminating before 1970 in a trip to the moon and back.

NASA Administrator James E. Webb has said an announcement will be forthcoming in about three weeks on recruiting additional astronauts.

New National Stock Exchange Is Opened

By JESSE BOGUE

NEW YORK (UPI) — With 13 stock exchanges already running in the United States, two in this city alone, aren't there plenty of places to trade securities in auction markets?

No, said Lawrence H. Taylor, who after four years of preparations, he as chairman opened the new National Stock Exchange. Taylor and his associates expect it will prove their point—that the nation's economic growth and broadened participation by various enterprises in the public market have created a need for another exchange.

"We are starting modestly," Taylor said. The new exchange will have eight stocks listed for trading when it opens for business in ground floor quarters at the New York Mercantile Exchange, 6 Harrison in Manhattan.

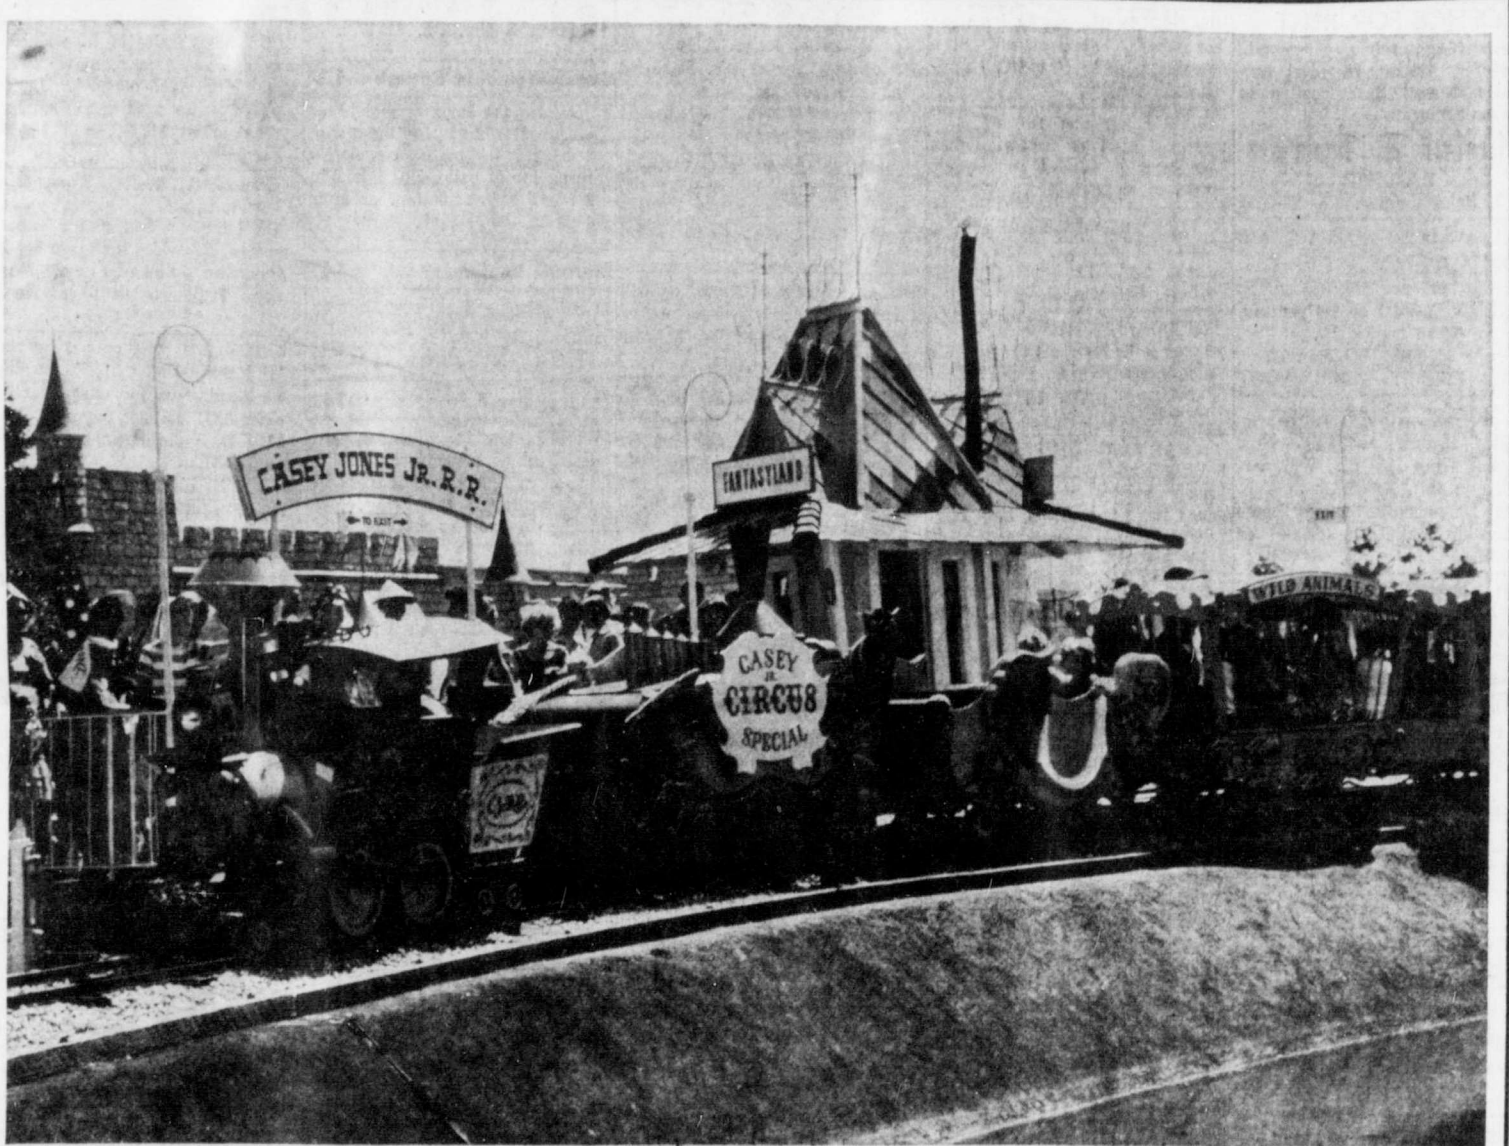

"We have a well-trained staff," he continued, "and the most modern devices for the prompt and accurate recording of transactions. We are endeavoring to avoid some of the trading problems which have developed from time to time in the experience of other exchanges, by thinking of safeguards against some situations before they develop."

The new exchange, he continued, cannot be compared to the granddaddy of this nation's stock action marts, the New York Stock Exchange, although five of the nine governors of the National Stock Exchange are members of the NYSE directly or through partnerships.

The National is the first new securities mart to be set up since 1929 and the first to be franchised since the Securities and Exchange Commission went into operation in 1933. It is sponsored by the Mercantile Exchange, and purchase of a Mercantile Exchange seat is a prerequisite to membership on the National, although the National has separate and different membership requirements.

Basic requirements for listing on the National Stock Exchange will be the existence of 500 stockholders of a security, with 100,000 shares in the hands of the public; and net worth from about $500,000 up. There are additional requirements on earning ability, management ability, indications of overall financial soundness.
